

PA40 Retirement

Process: The Benefits Office in Human Recourses processes all retirements. Departmental personnel should notify Benefits when employees announce their intended retirement plans.

Business Officers and personnel administrators occasionally rehire a retiree and assist with post-retirement appointments. They should work with the Benefits Office on any retiree rehire situation.

If funding is available, you can overlap the retiring employee and the new employee using the same position.